Map: Approximate work area (shown in red) along Fraser Highway between 140 Street and 192 Street

To prepare for the construction of the Surrey Langley SkyTrain, early works are underway along Fraser Highway between 140 Street and 192 Street.

Borehole investigative works, piling activities, utility disconnections and relocations, vegetation management, and other miscellaneous activities, will take place at several locations along Fraser Highway.

The workplan and schedule is subject to change.

What to Expect

Timing

Early works are expected to continue intermittently until December 2024.

Hours of Work

Monday to Friday from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. with possible Saturday shifts, as needed.

Traffic

Intermittent lane closures on Fraser Highway between 140 Street and 192 Street, which may also include lane closures at the approach to Fraser Highway on various intersecting streets along the corridor. Short duration stoppages of up to 2 minutes may take place occasionally.

Impacts/Interruptions

Pedestrian and cyclist access may shift but will be maintained. Depending on the activity, there may be a temporary increase in noise while this work is taking place.
