

Traffic Update: Industrial Avenue between 200 Street and 201A Street

Construction of the Surrey Langley SkyTrain is underway. Activities include utility relocations on Industrial Avenue, including upcoming intermittent activities from 200 Street to 201A Street. This work is anticipated through summer 2026. Additional utility work will occur throughout Industrial Avenue, and we will provide updates as they become available.

To support this work, there will be traffic pattern changes around work locations beginning on July 16, 2025, for approximately one week, including:

- Street parking restrictions on Industrial Avenue with no parking signs posted 72 hours in advance.
- Work areas will be on Industrial Avenue between 200 and 201A Street. Work will progress from the south side of Industrial Avenue to the north side of Industrial Avenue.
- Single lane traffic in each direction maintained between 200 Street and 201A Street.
- Access to businesses will be maintained.
- Traffic control personnel will direct pedestrians and cyclists around work areas as required.
- See the Traffic Advisory posted on June 20 for details about construction activities between 201A Street and 203 Street.
